

Title: Symfact receives highest possible rating in leading analyst firm's Contract Management MarketScope report.

Content:

July 23, 2007 – Symfact AG today announced that its Contract Management System, ContractX, received a “Strong Positive” rating in Gartner’s “MarketScope: Contract Management, 2007.” Symfact AG was one of 9 vendors evaluated in the report and received the highest possible rating, “Strong Positive”.

Symfact Quote:

“Symfact is delighted at receiving this highest possible rating from Gartner. It is particularly rewarding as we think it is a reflection of the positive feedback gathered during the survey from our existing customers.” said Chris Craddock, Director International Operations of Symfact AG. “We believe Gartner’s “Strong Positive” rating is confirmation of Symfact AG’s established position across many international markets with our uniquely configurable XML application ContractX.

Gartner Quote:

According to the Gartner report, “Gartner research estimated the enterprise contract management market at approximately $200 million for 2006, a 9% increase over 2005. We anticipate revenue growth in the double digits during the next few years. Early adopters have successfully proven the value of enterprise contract management applications; as a result, demand for these tools has increased. Growth will come from current customers, who are expanding the scope of their solutions within their organizations, as well as new customers.

About Symfact AG
